1911 jean stewart three hundred and one things a bright girl can do the musson book co toronto the book begins with a ringing endorsement of women s carriage health and intellect and offers as proof the example of bicycle riding how gracefully and well does a woman ride a bicycle usually how hump backed and ungainly do most men appear upon the same machine'
